“Mutual trust is the firmest building block in human relationships. Without it, the whole structure comes down.”
- L. Ron Hubbard

Winter Holiday Show

Feet were tap-tapping along as Sophia played Jolly Old St. Nicholas followed by Ashley with Jingle Bell Rock. Tom Fair and our music students filled the auditorium with songs like Old Toy Trains, Happy Talk and If You're Out There.

The story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears was narrated by Catalina. Goldilocks (Sophia) tip-toed in to taste the three plates of hot porridge and then try the three chairs and the beds. Giggles erupted into loud laughter when Papa Bear (Skye), Mama Bear (Vicky) and Baby Bear (Grace) found the lovely Goldilocks fast asleep on the bed!

A Story of True Friendship is based on the Greek legend of Dionysius, Pythias and Damon in Sicily about 400 BC. Aaron and Ben narrated during the scenes. The play follows the change of heart of the tyrannical “Dionysius the Elder” (Kirsten) when he witnesses the true friendship of Pythias (Hunter) and Damon (Courtney). One could hear the sighs of relief and delight when Dionysius said, “I have learned the errors of my ways. Please will you stay and teach me how to be a true friend.” Thunderous applause filled the room!

Guest Speaker

Winner of the Rock Album of the Year 2010, Jon Magnificent had more nominations than any other artist. In 2009 he was the proud winner of the GRAMMY ballot: Best Rock Song for “BABY!” He won the 2008 Orchestral Composer of the Year award as well as the Male Singer-Songwriter of the Year nominee - 18th annual Los Angeles Music Awards.

Jon is a musician, composer, singer, writer and so much more! Our students were eager listeners following with a barrage of questions including: How did you get into music? Who were your influences? What size crowds do you prefer? How much of the music business is actually music? Where was the biggest place you played at?

“Music has always been a passion of mine. I started poetry when I was nine and started writing lyrics out of it as soon as I learned how to play instruments. I started playing music when I taught myself guitar around the age of ten. From then on I have been playing music all my life,” explained Jon.

“Now, I have more inspiration to continue with my music career. Your dedication inspires and shows me that dedication and persistence leads to making your goals.” said Hector. “I did not know that musicians could win so many awards,” said Sophia.

Happy Holidays in the spirit of true friendship!

Awardees

Shuttleworth Leadership Society International (SLSI) commends the following people for inspiring youth and giving them the values, skills, opportunities and confidence to become leaders:

Jennifer Moran, B.A., is co-chair of the Arts and Culture Committee and East Hollywood Neighborhood Council member. Believing that our youth should have more parks, Jennifer has taken on building more parks by transforming parking spaces, streets and vacant lots for the local youth.

Gabriel Olague, B.S. in Civil Engineering, started delivering the Narconon Drug Education Lectures in English and Spanish since 2006 to women's organizations, parents and students in areas such as Compton and Los Angeles and at our school for the past three years.

Daren Reid, a Development Director for an Optical Software company, volunteers his time and coaches, referees, sets up fields, and organizes soccer games. Daren helps organize the Glendale AYSO Spring League including about 500 kids in soccer on the weekends.

Our "Three Little Bears" - Grace, Skye and Vicki.

YESS!

Youth Excelling in Spirit of Service

Toy Drive

Our students and their families as well as volunteers and friends donated toys for our Holiday Toy Drive. Thanks for all those toys donated to help make the holidays special and let other children know that they, too, are special!

Volunteers Needed!

Give from your heart to help save the lives of children at the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles. Parents, volunteers and friends please call (323) 361-2441 to make an appointment for our blood drive in February.

Special Thanks!

Thanks to our students, parents and staff for that delightful Winter Holiday Show! Thanks to Celebrity Center for hosting our show!

Thanks to everyone who donated toys to our Holiday Toy Drive!
Thanks to Jon Magnificent for that wonderful workshop and inspiration!
Special thanks to our Board of Directors, staff, volunteers, parents and students for another wonderful year of learning, sharing and caring.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!
